Course Introduction / Overview:

In the modern world, a successful public relations strategy is inseparable from a strong digital and social media presence. This course, offered by BIG BEN Training Center, is designed to give you the skills to create a powerful digital footprint for your brand. We will explore key concepts from thought leaders like Brian Solis, author of "Engage!", who is a leading voice on how brands can use digital channels to connect with their audience. The program covers everything you need to know about integrating traditional public relations with modern digital tactics, from building a strong social media content plan to managing online communities and handling a crisis on social media. We will focus on how to use storytelling to get your message heard across different platforms, engaging with your audience in a way that feels authentic and builds trust. By the end of this course, you'll be able to create a digital strategy that not only reaches your audience but also inspires them to become advocates for your brand.
