Course Introduction / Overview:

This intensive training course is designed to transform talented managers and executives into influential leaders who command respect and inspire action. Executive presence is not an innate quality but a dynamic set of skills that can be developed and refined. This program moves beyond superficial tips on presentation skills to explore the core components of leadership impact: gravitas, communication, and appearance. Drawing on foundational research from thought leaders like Sylvia Ann Hewlett, author of "Executive Presence: The Missing Link Between Merit and Success", we will deconstruct the elements that allow leaders to project confidence, credibility, and authority. Participants will engage in a deep-dive exploration of self-awareness, strategic communication, and the psychology of influence. BIG BEN Training Center has meticulously crafted this curriculum to provide a roadmap for cultivating an authentic leadership style that resonates in the boardroom, with clients, and across the organization. This course provides the strategic tools and personalized feedback necessary to not only understand what constitutes executive presence but to embody it consistently, enabling participants to navigate complex challenges, drive change, and accelerate their career trajectory with newfound confidence and impact.

Something to think about:

How can a leader maintain authentic executive presence in a virtual or hybrid work environment where traditional cues are limited?

What unique qualities does this course offer compared to other courses?

This course distinguishes itself by adopting a holistic and psychologically-grounded approach to leadership development, moving far beyond surface-level presentation skills. While other programs may focus on the "what" of executive presence, we delve deeply into the "why" and "how," ensuring that the changes participants make are authentic and sustainable. Our curriculum is uniquely structured around the interplay between internal mindset and external expression, fostering a level of self-awareness that is crucial for genuine influence. We emphasize the development of "gravitas" not as a performance, but as an outcome of deep-seated confidence, strategic clarity, and emotional intelligence. A key differentiator is our focus on personalized, actionable feedback through methods like video analysis and peer coaching, which accelerates learning and application. Unlike generic leadership courses, this program is specifically tailored to the nuanced challenges faced by senior leaders, providing sophisticated strategies for stakeholder management, strategic influence, and leading with poise in high-stakes environments. The result is not just a more polished presenter, but a more centered, impactful, and influential leader.
