Ethical and Professional Responsibility in Government Practice Training Course

09 - 13 Nov 2026

Baku

5100 € (Per Person)

Ref: #LAW4759_43259

Course Introduction / Overview:

Public service requires the highest standards of ethics and professional conduct. This specialized training course, from BIG BEN Training Center, is designed for professionals in government roles who need to navigate the complex legal and ethical challenges of public practice. We will explore key topics such as conflicts of interest, public integrity, and accountability in government decision-making. Drawing on the work of legal ethics experts like Deborah Rhode, a Stanford law professor and author of "The Trouble with Lawyers," this program goes beyond traditional legal training to address the unique issues faced by public sector employees. Participants will learn how to identify and resolve ethical dilemmas, comply with anti-corruption laws, and ensure transparency in all their actions. The curriculum is designed to help you understand the legal foundations of government work and the professional responsibilities that come with it. Our program gives you the tools to uphold public trust, manage sensitive information, and act with integrity in a demanding professional environment. This course is crucial for anyone who wants to serve the public with the utmost responsibility and ethical standards.

Target Audience / This training course is suitable for:

- Government lawyers and legal advisors.
- Public administration officers.
- Regulators and compliance personnel.
- Ethics officers and investigators.
- Civil servants and public sector managers.
- Legislative staff.
- Internal auditors in government agencies.
- Policy analysts and public relations officers.
- Anyone working in a government legal or policy role.

Target Sectors and Industries:

- Government and public administration.
- Justice departments and ministries.
- Regulatory bodies and commissions.
- Public prosecution and law enforcement.
- Legislative and parliamentary bodies.
- Non-governmental organizations (NGOs) in public policy.
- International organizations.
- Government agencies and equivalents.

Target Organizations Departments:

- Legal and compliance departments.
- Ethics and integrity offices.
- Internal audit and risk management.
- Public affairs and communication.
- Human resources and training.
- Policy and planning departments.
- Procurement and contracts.
- Executive leadership.

Course Offerings:

By the end of this course, the participants will have able to:

- Master ethical principles in public sector legal practice.
- Identify and resolve conflicts of interest.
- Comply with anti-corruption and public integrity laws.
- Understand the legal and ethical responsibilities of a public official.
- Navigate ethical dilemmas in government decision-making.
- Manage confidential and sensitive information appropriately.
- Develop a strong framework for professional responsibility.
- Advise on legal ethics and professional conduct within the organization.
- Ensure transparency and accountability in public service.

Course Methodology:

This training course is highly interactive and practical, with a focus on real-world application. Our methodology is centered on hands-on learning through detailed case studies based on real ethical challenges in government practice. Participants will get the chance to work through scenarios, like a potential conflict of interest or a breach of public trust. We also use interactive group discussions and workshops to explore complex topics, like the legal and ethical aspects of government contracts. The curriculum is designed with practical exercises that help you apply ethical principles to your own work. For example, a session might involve a role-playing exercise where you advise a public official on an ethical dilemma. This hands-on approach, combined with expert-led presentations and continuous feedback, ensures a dynamic learning environment where participants can deepen their understanding and develop practical ethical skills. Our program is designed to be a highly effective and memorable experience, giving you the tools to succeed in your public service career.

Course Agenda (Course Units):

Unit One: Foundations of Legal Ethics and Public Service

- The role of ethics in government practice.
- Sources of ethical and professional responsibility.
- Public trust and accountability.
- Legal and ethical obligations of government lawyers.
- Navigating the legal frameworks of public service.

Unit Two: Conflicts of Interest and Public Integrity

- Identifying and managing conflicts of interest.
- Rules for post-government employment.
- Preventing and detecting corruption.
- Whistleblower protection and reporting.
- Maintaining public integrity and trust.

Unit Three: Confidentiality and Information Management

- Legal and ethical duties of confidentiality.
- Managing sensitive and classified information.
- Freedom of information and public records laws.
- Data privacy in the public sector.
- Protecting attorney-client privilege.

Unit Four: Ethical Decision-Making

- Frameworks for ethical decision-making.
- Analyzing ethical dilemmas in public practice.
- Moral courage and professional responsibility.
- Accountability in government.
- The role of ethics in policymaking.

Unit Five: Contemporary Issues in Government Ethics

- The ethics of artificial intelligence in government.
- Social media and professional conduct.
- Ethical challenges of lobbying.
- Global anti-corruption initiatives.
- Future trends in public service ethics.

FAQ:

Qualifications required for registering to this course?

There are no requirements.

How long is each daily session, and what is the total number of training hours for the course?

This training course spans five days, with daily sessions ranging between 4 to 5 hours, including breaks and interactive activities, bringing the total duration to 20 - 25 training hours.

Something to think about:

Given the increasing use of artificial intelligence in public administration, what new legal and ethical frameworks are needed to ensure fair, transparent, and accountable decision-making?

What unique qualities does this course offer compared to other courses?

This training course is unique because it is specifically tailored to the ethical and professional challenges faced by professionals in government and public service. Unlike general legal ethics courses, our program focuses on the unique duties, responsibilities, and legal frameworks that govern public officials. We use an intensive case-study and role-playing approach, which allows you to practice new skills in a safe environment. We give you a deep understanding of public integrity laws and anti-corruption strategies, which are essential for any professional in this field. The curriculum goes beyond theory to give you the tools to identify and resolve complex ethical dilemmas in your day-to-day work. By combining legal principles with practical, hands-on training, our course helps you become a more ethical and effective public servant, ensuring you can act with confidence and integrity.