Course Introduction / Overview:

This comprehensive training course is designed to equip leaders and professionals with the essential knowledge and skills to navigate the complex regulatory landscape of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. In an era of dynamic economic growth driven by Vision 2030, maintaining robust corporate governance and an effective compliance framework is no longer optional but a strategic imperative. This program delves deep into the core principles of compliance leadership, exploring how to build and sustain an ethical organizational culture from the top down. As discussed by author Eugene Soltes in his book "Why They Do It: Inside the Mind of the White-Collar Criminal," understanding the behavioral aspects of non-compliance is crucial for prevention. This course, offered by BIG BEN Training Center, bridges the gap between theoretical knowledge of Saudi Arabian laws and the practical application of a Compliance Management System (CMS). Participants will gain mastery over key regulatory areas, including anti-money laundering (AML), anti-bribery and corruption (ABC), data privacy, and sector-specific regulations from bodies like SAMA and the CMA. The curriculum is structured to empower attendees to not only meet current regulatory standards but also to anticipate and manage future regulatory changes, thereby protecting their organizations from legal, financial, and reputational risks.

Course Methodology:

The training methodology employed by BIG BEN Training Center is designed to be highly interactive, practical, and engaging, ensuring that participants can immediately apply their learning in their professional roles. We move beyond traditional lectures to create a dynamic learning environment that fosters deep understanding and skill development. The course heavily relies on real-world case studies drawn from the Saudi Arabian business context, allowing participants to analyze complex compliance challenges and develop actionable solutions. Interactive group discussions, workshops, and role-playing scenarios will be used to explore leadership dilemmas and ethical decision-making processes. Participants will work in teams on practical exercises, such as developing a compliance risk matrix or drafting a whistleblowing policy, to reinforce key concepts. Expert facilitators will guide sessions, providing personalized feedback and encouraging peer-to-peer learning. The program integrates a blend of theoretical knowledge with hands-on application, ensuring that attendees leave not just with information, but with the confidence and competence to lead compliance initiatives effectively within their organizations.

Something to think about:

In the context of Saudi Arabia's rapid economic transformation under Vision 2030, how can compliance leaders balance fostering innovation with maintaining stringent regulatory adherence?

What unique qualities does this course offer compared to other courses?

This training course distinguishes itself through its specialized and unwavering focus on the unique regulatory and cultural context of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. Unlike generic compliance courses, every module, case study, and discussion is tailored to the specific challenges and opportunities within the KSA market, directly aligning with the strategic goals of Vision 2030. The curriculum offers a rare synthesis of technical regulatory knowledge and the critical leadership skills required to drive a culture of integrity. It moves beyond a simple review of laws to explore the practicalities of implementing, managing, and leading a compliance function effectively. Participants will benefit from deep dives into local regulations such as the PDPL and specific CMA and SAMA requirements, providing actionable insights that are immediately applicable. Furthermore, the course emphasizes a strategic perspective, teaching participants not just how to comply, but how to leverage a strong compliance framework as a competitive advantage that builds trust with stakeholders, attracts investment, and ensures sustainable growth in the evolving Saudi economy. The focus is on creating proactive compliance leaders, not just reactive managers.
