COURSE INTRODUCTION / OVERVIEW:

This intensive training course provides a comprehensive exploration of the modern communications landscape, where digital PR and social media influence converge to shape brand perception and drive business outcomes. We move beyond theoretical concepts to deliver actionable strategies for building a powerful and resilient online presence. The curriculum is designed to equip participants with the skills needed to navigate the complexities of online reputation management, digital storytelling, and influencer engagement. As noted by the distinguished author Dr. Deirdre Breakenridge in her seminal work, "Social Media and Public Relations: Eight New Practices for the PR Professional," the field has fundamentally shifted, demanding a more integrated and audience-centric approach. This course, offered by BIG BEN Training Center, embraces this evolution, focusing on creating authentic brand narratives, fostering genuine community engagement, and measuring the tangible impact of digital PR efforts. Participants will learn to leverage content, data, and relationships to build brand authority and effectively manage communications in a fast-paced digital world.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT:

In an era of AI-generated content and deepfakes, how can digital PR professionals authentically build and maintain public trust?

WHAT UNIQUE QUALITIES DOES THIS COURSE OFFER COMPARED TO OTHER COURSES?

This course distinguishes itself by focusing on the strategic integration of digital PR and social media influence, rather than treating them as separate disciplines. While many programs concentrate on the tactical use of specific tools, our curriculum emphasizes the development of a foundational strategic mindset. We delve into the psychology of online influence, the art of digital storytelling, and the critical importance of ethical communication in building long-term brand equity. The content is structured to build a holistic understanding, from crafting a core brand narrative to managing a full-blown digital crisis. A significant portion of the course is dedicated to measurement and analytics, equipping participants with the ability to demonstrate tangible business value and ROI, moving beyond superficial vanity metrics. The program's emphasis on real-world case studies and interactive problem-solving ensures that participants leave not just with knowledge, but with the confidence and capability to implement sophisticated digital communication strategies within their own organizations.
